ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, let them know something about them that you are grateful for—something they did, some personality trait that you admire, etc.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone at the table answer this question: "What is something you have to be grateful for this week?" (It can be something small—some weeks are like that.)

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "What's the best thing that has happened to you lately?"

Bed Time

Pray for each other: "God, help us to always see something we can be grateful for in each and every situation. We know it might not change the situation, but it does remind us that You can bring good to even the hardest things we go through."

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, make a promise to do something with or for them—and make sure you fulfill it.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone at the table answer this question: "What is something you hope will happen in 2024?"

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "What is something you love that God made?"

Bed Time

Pray for each other: "God, help us to have hope that You are always at work—even if it's a small amount. Thank You for the ways You have been faithful in the past. When we remember, it helps us have hope for both now and the future."
