

Made: Discover who you're meant to be

Uniqueness is learning more about yourself so you can make a difference.

MEMORY VERSE

How you made me is amazing and wonderful. I praise you for that. What you have done is wonderful. I know that very well.

Psalm 139:14, NIV

Talk About the Bible Story

Open the Bible together and read Psalm 139:1-14 (supporting: Genesis 1:26-28, Ephesians 2:10) or watch the video together on the Parent Cue app.

Engagement Questions

- How would you describe yourself?
- What makes you special?
- How does it make you feel to know that God made you, knows you, and loves you?

Faith and Character Activity

Scan the QR code below for activities to guide kids at every phase to trust Jesus in a way that changes how they see God, themselves, and the rest of the world.

Prayer

"Thank You, God, for loving each of us exactly as You created us and for creating us for a special purpose to make a difference in the world around us. Help us remember that You made us, know us, and love us so much! We love You, and we pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen."

Weekly Parent Cues

Elementary

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, tell them something about how they are made that you love (their smile, their laugh, how they see others, etc.).

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone at the table describe good things about the person sitting next to them.

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "Think of someone you know. What do you like about the way God made them?"

Bed Time

Pray for each other: "God, thank You that You made us, love us, and know us. Remind us of that when we feel differently."

Read: Psalm 139:2

DAY

I Am

Stand in front of a mirror and look at yourself. Wow! You look awesome! Think about the ways that God has made you amazing. While standing in the mirror, say out loud several "I am" sentences describing how great God made you. For example: "I am kind." "I am a good friend."

KNOW that God created you, knows you, and loves you just the way you are.

Here, There, Everywhere

The writer of Psalm 139:2 tells us how God always sees us and cares for us. Read this week's verse with someone in your house. Talk about all the places that you go and how God is always there.

LOOK for God in everything you do and everywhere you go.

Picture Perfect

Draw a self-portrait. Add all the special details that God added to make you unique. When finished, take your drawing around to your family and ask them to write out something that they love about you on the paper. Use this to remind yourself how loved you are.

ASK God to help you see yourself like others see you.

Made, Known, Loved

Pray this prayer out loud:

 "God, it is comforting that you know me so well. You know everything about me—You did even before I was born! Thank you for making me, knowing me, and loving me always. Help me to learn more about You too. I love You. Amen."

THANK God for always loving you!

God made you,
 knows you,
 and loves you.

Draw a picture of what makes you special.

What to Do:
Print on paper, one for every two kids.

- You forgot to do your homework and didn't want your teacher to be upset, so you told your teacher that you finished it and left it on the bus. (step backward)
- Your friend had his feelings hurt because someone called him a really unkind name. You listen to his feelings, then remind him of the positive qualities he has. (step forward)
- Someone at school asks you for help with something you learned in school, so you take time to help them during recess instead of playing your favorite games that day. (step forward)
- You promised your friend that you would come to their birthday party, but then you were asked to play basketball that day—and that sounds more interesting. You decide to skip the birthday party without telling your friend. (step backward)
- Your parents asked you to stop playing video games and clean your room instead, so you put down the video game controller and start cleaning your room. (step forward)
- You need some help paying attention in class, so you ask God to help you focus on what matters during school and begin making a choice to do so. (step forward)
- Someone in your school class was being unkind and laughing at your friend. You decided to stop talking to that person and tell the others bad things about them to get revenge. (step backward)
- You're reading your favorite book while you wait for dinner to be made. You look up and see your dad cooking dinner—he still has a long way to go. Without being asked, you put down your book and go into the kitchen to help. (step forward)

What to Do:
